

Director of Human Resources – Job Posting

Since 1985, Habitat Wake has partnered with homebuyers, donors and volunteers to build more than 750 safe, affordable, energy-efficient homes in the greater Raleigh area that throughout Wake and Johnston counties. Seeking to put God's love into action, Habitat for Humanity brings people together to build homes, communities, and hope. Our vision is a world where everyone has a decent place to live. Habitat Wake believes that bringing people together is essential to building healthy communities.

Habitat for Humanity Wake County is seeking a qualified, passionate leader for the position of Director of Human Resources (DHR). This position guides and directs the Human Resource initiatives for the entire organization including strategic planning, policies/procedures, programs, and HR Best Practices. The DHR will provide expert Human Resources direction for talent acquisition and engagement, benefits and compensation structure, performance management, staff and organizational development, employee relations, and building strong relationships internally and externally while promoting the organizational culture throughout the organization.

If you are looking for an opportunity to make a real difference in people's lives, this might be the position for you. Expectations are that candidates will have 10+ years of experience in Human Resources Management, strong verbal and written communication skills, ability to build relationships, and be extremely organized in a fast-paced environment. The salary range for this position is $75K to $100K with starting salary commensurate with experience and background. Habitat offers a competitive compensation and benefits package. No calls or recruiters, please.

Send resumes to: hr@habitatwake.org